

Dear Friends,

This has just been sent in to the Southeastern Yearly Meeting administrative secretary, Lyn Cope. Fa and I will be in Orlando Friday afternoon until Sunday evening for Winter Interim Business Meeting and the Michener Lecture. Please, hold us in Tenderness and Wholeness.

Lovingkindness,
Wendiferous

Subject: Jacksonville Meeting's Spiritual State Report

Jacksonville Monthly Meeting considered our spiritual state during our meeting for business on 1/13/08. We reviewed our 2007 Report and think that remains a clear description of our meeting at the present time. We remain a small group (4-8, usually) meeting on First Days. We value and learn from each other as we join in meeting for worship and in other shared activities: @ an hour of sharing after worship; infrequent meeting potlucks; and involvement in Wage Peace, the local Peace group. A valued attendee moved to St. Louis. Susan Taylor, SEYM clerk and member of Tallahassee Meeting, and Wendy Clarissa Geiger, JMM attendee, visited Golden Isle Worship Group once.

Friends recognize the importance of the discipline of regular attendance at meeting for worship with prepared hearts and minds. We are concerned we have fallen short of this discipline. We continue to consider: "We sit around in a circle thinking in our private ways about that Something, but often not knowing how to tell others what we know experimentally about Something's graceful work in our personal lives. In other words, we are waiting for leadings which will help us to answer for each other: Just what is it we are sitting around?"
